Caption
21 Septembre 2015 : Noor SAKARYA (8 ans) s'amuse avec ses camarades de classe dans la cour de récréation de l'école Montessori de Salvert où il est scolarisé depuis son arrivée en France en mars 2014. Chrétien d'Irak originaire de la ville de Qaraqosh, il est hébergé au sein de la Congrégation des Filles de la Sainte Vierge (Sœurs de Salvert) avec sa famille. Salvert, Vienne (86), Poitou-Charente, France. September 21st, 2015: Several Christian families from the city of Qaraqosh left Iraq earlier in 2014 because of the insecurity in the country and ISIS (Islamic State of Iraq and Syria) threats. They settled down with their children in France and have been hosted by the Congregation of the Daughters of the Virgin Mary (Congrégation des Filles de la Sainte Vierge) nearby the city of Poitiers since their arrival. The congregation helps them to start a new life. Salvert, France.
